

2010 F=ma Exam: Problem 3

Kevin S. Huang

In an acceleration-time plot, speed is given by the magnitude of the signed area under the graph. Point C maximizes the positive area under the graph while Point E maximizes the negative area. Since the magnitude of the maximum positive area is larger, the answer is B.